Sanitized - Approved For Release

PHILADFLIBIA, PA. INQUIRER

11 - 603,438S - 933,643

FEB 23 1967

FOIAb3b

House Group Reopens Probe of Foundations In Furor Over

From Our Wire Services
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—As result of the flap over CIA use of private channels to funnel money to various groups, a Congressional committee will reopen an investigation of operations of tax-exempt foundations, it was the Gotham Foundation in New announced Wednesday.

Rep. Joe Evins (D., Tenn.), through foundations.

hearings in 1964 revealing the of newspaper stories. conduit for CIA funds. 575 FOUNDATIONS

A spokesman for the subcom- levels of government. mittee said no dates had been set for any new public hearings which issues periodic reports America. on findings.

In another development Wedcration of State, County and and other private organizations. Municipal Employes, revealed Senator from Texas, Mr. Johnthat for six years the CIA sub-son was a member of the Scnsidized the union's international ate's special CIA watchdog subactivities.

of the United World Federalists,
The White House has not state 1958 at the rate of about $7500 of the agency's educational and a year. By 1964, said Zander, other subsidies before the recent the agency was putting $60,000 public disclosure of CIA pay one of its "dummy" conduits, Association.

York.

Zander said he was unaware chairman of the House Small at the time that the money came Business Committee, said a sub-from the CIA, that he had never committee headed by Rep. inquired about the source of the Wright Patman (D., Tex.) would funds, and that he still sees look into recent developments nothing improper in the arrangepertaining to CIA subsidizations ment. He said he learned that Gotham was a CIA front only The subcommittee held public in the last few days as a result

CIA used the J. M. Kaplan funneled into Public Services The money, said Zander, was Foundation of New York as a International (PSI) in London, the world-wide organization of unions representing members of the public bureaucracy at all

ORGANIZATION DRIVE

PSI was engaged, said Zander into tax-free foundations. There in an effort to organize public are 575 foundations under re-employes all over the world, view by the subcommittee staff especially in Africa and Latin

Meanwhile, Congressional informants said President Johnson must have known, almost nesday, Arnold Zander, former from the beginning, of the CIA's president of the American Fed-involvement with student groups committee for almost six years Zander, who is now president during which the panel was fully

said the CIA subsidy began in ed whether the President knew a year into the operation through ments to the National Student CPYRGHT